First Page

Hello. The first page you will see in this application, it is available to you as guest and to any other users, admins or members, and it is just the way you access my application.

The above screen is what you will see first time when you will try to log in into this application. In order to proceed, you will have to press the Picture Box button in order to start.
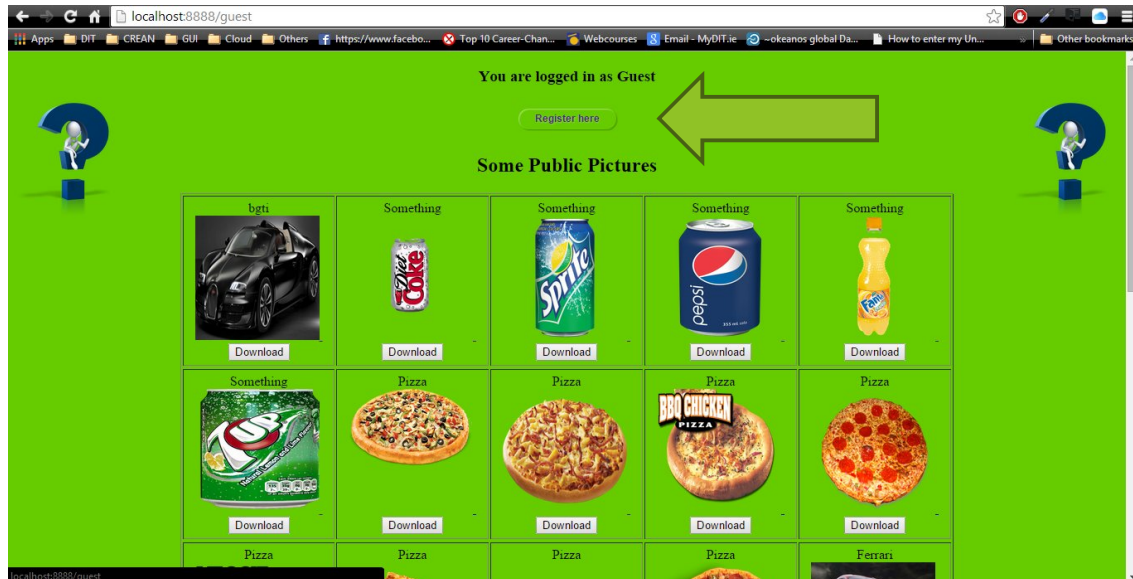

Portal

You will be redirected to this screen:

Here you can find what I call, the Portal. This is where you ca Sign in if you have an account on this application, you can register in case you don't but you can also Visit the application as Guest.

As Guest to my application you can see the public pictures that other people upload and you can also download them.

Here are presented some public pictures that you can see without being a member. The pictures are displayed in small size and if you choose to click on one of them, you will be able to see the picture at its normal size.

As a guest you won't have permissions to upload pictures or to share pictures with other people, other members of the application. You are just one step from the registration. On the top of the page you can see a Register button. Register and share pictures with other members.
